

Attend a FREE seminar!

Are you a small business owner or entrepreneur who would like to learn more about online tools to promote your business?

The County of Brant Public Library is offering a free seminar for small business owners to help introduce you to the most popular social networking applications (such as Facebook and Twitter) and explain how to apply best practices for online marketing success.

Please see the accompanying brochure for seminar dates, times and content.

“It has never been easier to be as influential as you can be today. Information is cheap. Information is easier to produce. And if you have a quality message, product and company, it’s never been easier to get out.”

— Jordan Raynor, Web strategist

For more information and to book your spot, please contact Blaire at the Paris Branch Library:

Call: 519-442-2433 ex. 21
email: techcoach@brant.ca

Government of Canada funding through Industry Canada is gratefully acknowledged

Linked in

You Tube
Broadcast Yourself™

facebook

twitter