

Workshop II: Advanced Topics in Grant Writing

Wednesday June 1, 2011 9am - noon

Coach House, Ruthven Park National Historic Site, 243 Hwy. #54, Cayuga

Join us at this free workshop led by Nicole Kovacs. Focusing on the essential elements of a proposal, this advanced workshop will provide participants with advanced strategies for grant writing. By exploring each of the essential elements of a proposal, participants will enhance their grant writing skills and gain new tools and resources to achieve success in their grant writing endeavors.

Topics include:

- Writing a compelling need statement
- Defining clear goals and objectives
- Preparing the evaluation component
- Developing sustainability strategies
- Preparing the program budget
- Writing the organization background
- Writing the proposal summary
- Putting the package together

To register: This is a free workshop but space is limited. Please e-mail Claire Carrier ccarrier@trilliumfoundation.org to reserve your space, listing your organization and a contact number where we can reach you.

Nicole Kovacs, Principal Consultant of Kovacs Group Inc., has a Master's degree in business and ten years' of grant writing experience. In the past three years, she raised over 7.5 million dollars for new and existing nonprofit initiatives through municipal, provincial, federal, foundation and corporate grants. A sought-after speaker, Nicole frequently conducts workshops and seminars relating to Kovacs Group's core service areas.

Directions from Brant / Norfolk:

Take Hwy. #54 and proceed south east through Caledonia and York. Ruthven Park is on your right hand side approximately 5 km from York. If you go into Cayuga you have gone too far

