

Show Me the Money: Effective Proposal Writing Workshop

Wednesday May 4, 2011 9am - noon

Norfolk District Business Development Corp. Boardroom
4077 Highway 3 East, Simcoe

Join us at this free workshop led by Nicole Kovacs to get more information about:

- Tips for writing effective proposals
- Reasons why proposals are unsuccessful.
- Essential elements of successful proposals
- Proposal planning and conceptualization

This highly interactive workshop will focus on demystifying the proposal writing process. Participants will enhance their proposal writing skills and gain the tools and techniques required to prepare effective proposals.

The workshop will end with a Q & A with a Panel of Funders:

- John Klunder, Sand Plains Community Development Fund
- Bruce Shoff, Norfolk Community Foundation
- Eva Salter, Ministries of Tourism & Culture; Immigration and Citizenship; Health Promotion
- Trudi Collins, Ontario Trillium Foundation

To register: This is a free workshop but space is limited. Please e-mail Claire Carrier ccarrier@trilliumfoundation.org to reserve your space, listing your organization and a contact number where we can reach you.

Nicole Kovacs, Principal Consultant of Kovacs Group Inc., has a Master's degree in business and ten years' of grant writing experience. In the past three years, she raised over 7.5 million dollars for new and existing nonprofit initiatives through municipal, provincial, federal, foundation and corporate grants. A sought-after speaker, Nicole frequently conducts workshops and seminars relating to Kovacs Group's core service areas.

