

1. Development charges for municipal services shall be calculated and payable at the availability of a building permit or as specified in an agreement entered into between the owner and the municipality.
2. The following uses are wholly exempt from development charges under these bylaws:
 - a) Land that is owned by and used for the purposes of
 - i. A board of education;
 - ii. Any municipality or local board thereof;
 - iii. A non-residential farm building
 - iv. A farm bunk house
 - b) the enlargement of an existing dwelling unit or the creation of one or two additional dwelling units in an existing detached house where the total residential gross floor area of the dwelling units created does not exceed the residential gross floor area of the existing dwelling unit prior to the enlargement;
 - c) the creation of one additional dwelling unit in any other existing residential building, provided the residential gross floor area of the additional dwelling unit does not exceed the residential gross floor area of the smallest existing dwelling unit in the case of a semi-detached house, or row house, or does not exceed the residential gross floor area of the smallest existing dwelling unit contained in any other residential building
3. A credit for development charges under this bylaw shall be allowed in the case of the demolition or conversion of all or part of a residential or non-residential building, provided that the building permit for the development or redevelopment is issued within five (5) years from when the demolition permit is issued.
4. Please see Bylaw 100-19 section 3(6) for the calculation of an enlargement of an existing industrial building.

Purpose of Development Charges:

The general purpose for which the County of Brant imposes development charges is to assist in providing the infrastructure required for future development by establishing a viable capital funding source to meet the County's financial requirements.

Development Charge Rules:

The main rules for determining if a development charge is payable, and for determining the amount of that charge, are as follows:

1. Development Charge Bylaw 100-19 applies to all lands within the County of Brant

Charges relating to municipal water services, wastewater services, and stormwater services apply only to development receiving the respective services, based on the provisions of these bylaws.
